Trainer Profiles

Cheryl Cameron

Cheryl is evidently very passionate about education as she has worked in the Further Education sector for 17 years! Cheryl has an extensive and broad knowledge in the sector having worked across various institutions including FE colleges, Universities, and Private Training Providers in many job roles including working as a teacher, lecturer, assessor, IQA, teaching, learning and assessment coach, Programme Manager and Head of Department. Cheryl has worked for NCFE since March 2020 as an EQA and is particularly interested in teacher education, as well as education and training qualifications. She has delivered a range of qualifications including A Levels, NVQs, apprenticeship standards, awards, certificates and diplomas, from Level 1 to Level 7 across the Business, IT and Sales sector. Aside from Cheryl's impressive professional background, she loves to spend her spare time with family and friends and enjoys cooking, walking her 2 whippets (especially at the beach), listening to music and reading. Cheryl and her family also own a VW campervan and love going on weekend adventures!

Estelle Bennett

Estelle has worked in the education sector since 2007 as a committed qualified tutor, private training provider, EQA, IQA and Mentor. During this time, she's delivered a broad range of qualifications and courses, including NCFE awards in the Further Education sector in her subject specialism, art, and design. Through this role Estelle worked enthusiastically to support learners in disadvantaged areas of Birmingham to achieve qualifications in creative crafts, build self-esteem and motivate them to utilise achievements to gain employment based on their personal and vocational development. In August 2018 Estelle brought her experience in education to NCFE's art, media, music, and performance sector as an external assessment examiner and in May 2019 she took on her current role as External Quality. She is passionate about the arts and loves her acrylic painting class which she attends weekly. She is always creating jewellery at home and enjoys sharing these skills with a small group of ladies who meet weekly with her to create jewellery. Her garden is her spring and summer designation, and she spends her time redesigning this just for fun!

Jenny Morgan

Jenny has worked with NCFE since 2008 and excels in her current role as an External Quality Assurer. As well as being an EQA, Jenny is also a qualified IQA, Trainer, and Teacher. Following a career in Further Education, Jenny has worked with a range of educational organisations where she has demonstrated exceptional leadership skills, having delivered training and led on various projects at national level. Jenny has knowledge and experience of assessment in several sectors including Preparation for Life and Work, Functional Skills and Business, IT and Sales. In her spare time Jenny is a cake decorator and enjoys entering competitions.

Stephen Parry

Stephen has worked with NCFE as an EQA for 10 years within the Sport, Uniformed Services and Travel sector. He is experienced in his role and has also worked on other related projects like writing and developing sports qualifications. Prior to working full time for NCFE, Stephen worked in the Further Education and Private Sector in a range of roles. He has taught as a lecturer and has managed as head of department and head of quality and has also delivered training courses and written apprenticeship standards. When he is not supporting his centres, Stephen can normally be found watching his children playing sport, driving, or walking his young spaniel around the local fields.

Karen Clough

Karen has worked with NCFE as an EQA since 2019 and has also been involved in writing and developing creative qualifications. She previously worked in teaching, quality assurance and education management roles across several Adult and Further Education providers. She has taught from Level 1 to Level 5 and is passionate about Lifelong learning.

Initially beginning her career in Science and Engineering, Karen then changed direction to retrain in Creative Arts, in particular Textile Art. Karen still works part time as a Textile Artist and Adult Education Tutor.

In her spare time Karen enjoys living on her family's rural smallholding, taking part in creative activities and spending time with a young border collie.
