Intro: F#m, D, A, E (X2)

Verse 1:

F#m D A E
Under cover from a willow branch, shelters me from the rain

F#m D A E
Find my corner on the forest ground and set up camp for a day.

F#m D A E
Blankets on to stay nice and warm and be tucked away from the bitter storm

F#m D A E
Nature's sound blowing all around and I close my eyes and yawn.

Chorus:

A Amaj7 D
And I, could come here all the time

A Amaj7 D
And I, could stay here for a while

A E D
And I don't quite know how I could go anywhere else. (X2)

Verse 2:

F#m D A E
Run my fingers through the shining grass, morning dew on my skin

F#m D A E
Think I'll let another day go past, taking everything in.

F#m D A E
Embers rise from a burning fire and the sun sinks down through another hour

F#m D A E
Full of joy as I kick back for the night.

Chorus:

A Amaj7 D
And I, could come here all the time

A Amaj7 D
And I, could stay here for a while

A E D
And I don't quite know how I could go anywhere else. (X2)

Bridge:

D F#m E
Dri - ve to the shore

D F#m E
And I'll hi - de away some more

Bm A E C#m
La - y in the sand

D F#m E
How I could get tired of this I'll never understand

Chorus:

A Amaj7 D
And I, could come here all the time

A Amaj7 D
And I, could stay here for a while

A E D
And I don't quite know how I could go anywhere else. (X4)
