NCFE International

Meeting the skills needs of a changing world.

We're an educational charity and leader in vocational and technical learning. We combine over 170 years of experience with deep insight, working with a network of expert collaborators to shape smarter solutions around the greatest learning needs. In doing this, we're working for a fairer education system for all learners to power inclusivity and choice.

Our offer

Using our decades of experience in education, employability, skills innovation and workforce planning, we design qualifications for individuals ranging from school pupils to highly skilled professionals, with a clear focus on developing skills for global prosperity and equality.

With more than 1,000 Ofqual-regulated qualifications and bespoke programmes, our provision impacts hundreds of thousands of individuals every year, giving them the knowledge, skills and behaviours they need to access meaningful work throughout their lives.

Our sector specialisms

During our more than 170 years of experience in vocational and technical learning, we've developed deep expertise in a number of specialist sectors. We're proud to offer the highest quality qualifications, content and transformational learning experiences in these areas:

-  Early years and childcare
-  Education and training
-  Health and science
-  Social care
-  Digital

Alongside these key sectors, we also have expertise and a strong portfolio of qualifications in each of the following areas:

-  Sport
-  Uniformed public services
-  Travel
-  Sustainability
-  Transport, logistics and engineering
-  Retail
-  English and maths
-  Catering
-  Business administration and management
-  Creative and design
-  Essential digital skills

Our in-house experts

We have more than 600 dedicated people working to develop and deliver innovative programmes and education services.

Our international partners can choose from our "pick and mix" style catalogues to create bespoke continuing professional development (CPD) programmes, as well as programmes to suit schools, further education (FE) colleges or independent training providers.

Unregulated qualifications

Qualifications written by you and accredited by us are unregulated. This means that they are not regulated by Ofqual and are not part of a qualification framework.

This official recognition from NCFE will enable you to demonstrate quality and rigour to your customer or end user – helping you drive sales and improving the value of the qualification. Plus, you'll retain ownership of the qualification content and delivery. Learn more about unregulated and customised qualifications, and other bespoke services we can provide.
